Senior School Afrikaans Teacher

St Charles College is looking to employ a suitably qualified Senior School Afrikaans teacher commencing 1 January 2019. The College pursues its mission based upon core values and our staff members are expected to have high levels of integrity and exercise sound judgement in line with the responsibility of educating boys.

Key responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Teaching IGCSE and AS Level Afrikaans
- Active involvement in the development of Afrikaans within the Languages Faculty of the College

The ideal candidate will have:

- A minimum of a Bachelor's degree with Afrikaans as a major, and a professional teaching qualification (PGCE or HDE)
- Appropriate educational experience together with a sound awareness of international trends in education.
- Knowledge of the needs of boys and their particular requirements for learning.
- Excellent interpersonal, written and oral communication skills and sound administrative ability.
- Proof of registration with SACE.
- An ability to work within the values, Christian ethos and mission of the College and a willingness to participate in the broader life of the College.
- Capacity and willingness to accompany boys on extension trips

How do you apply?

Only persons with the appropriate qualification and experience will be considered. If you feel you suit the above position, please fax or email your detailed two-page curriculum vitae to the College, including the names of three contactable referees.

Email your two-page CV to: The Human Resources Department

Email: recruitment@scc.co.za

Applications close on 23/10/2018.

The College reserves the right not to fill the post. An application will not, in itself, entitle the applicant to an interview or appointment, and failure to meet the minimum requirements of the advertised post will result in the applicants automatically disqualifying themselves from consideration.
