Great Team Players Are 100% Committed

If there is one thing that truly separates the good from the great players, it's in their level of commitment to the team. Great team players are 100% committed to the everyday process of making themselves and their teammates better.
Commitment means being 100% invested in the team's vision.

#THROWBACK Thursday

This week we're throwing it back to one of our favourite activities in the Prep School Calendar – THE ANNUAL SAINTS NIGHT RELAY!

Last year's theme of Survivor saw families and friends gather on The Saints Oval, dressed to impress and ready to race through the St Charles College campus!

THIS WEEKS' READING FROM Chapel

*"But I focus on this one thing:
Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead,
I press on to reach
the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize
for which God,
through Christ
Jesus, is calling us."*

Philippians 3: 10-14

GETTING TO KNOW THE Saints Coaches

Q&A WITH MR KELVIN ELDER

- STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING -

Year that you started coaching at SCC?

I Started at SCC in 2017.

Favourite sport(s)?

I am a fan of all sports, but rugby is where my passion lies.

Favourite activity to relax / destress?

I enjoy fishing as it takes my mind off things. Staying active and being able to gym also seems to help with this.

Favourite food?

I will say Sushi, but one cannot beat a good old-fashioned braai.

Favourite holiday?

Going to Mozambique is always high up on my list.

What book should everyone read?

I am a fan of autobiographies, but a must read would be: The Monk Who Sold His Ferrari.

I support... (which pro teams)? Locally I support the Sharks; I am also a huge fan of the Crusaders from New Zealand.

Most influential coach you had when you were playing (and why)? I have been privileged enough to be coached by some great coaches over the years, Namely: Ryan Strudwick, former Italian international Carlo Del Fava, and current Sharks Super Rugby coach Sean Everitt. The most influential coach for me was current Lions assistant coach Sean Erasmus. He was my Craven Week coach, he allowed me to express my talent and skillset and he encouraged us as players to play towards our strengths. Ultimately, he guided and managed us, and did not try to change our style of play. That allowed me to grow into a mature player and make a name for myself, which opened doors.

Best sporting memory as a player? This is a tough one. Running out for my school's 1st team rugby will always be incredibly special. I will always remember scoring a try on our 150th in front of a packed crowd. I would say my biggest highlight of my career though is when I made my Sharks senior debut.

Best memory as a coach (so far)? My best memory as a coach would be coaching an incredibly talented 2017 U14A Rugby team. We only lost 1 game that year, scoring 98 tries and only conceding 12. This was remarkable. We were ranked 7th in the country by SA School Sport.

Your 5 coaching non-negotiables:

- Humility
- Respect
- Commitment
- Doing extras (on and off the field) "Doing Whatever it takes".
- Resilience

Strength and conditioning plays such a pivotal role in our sports programme. The healthy climate in the conditioning centre and subsequent work ethic of the Saints boys has been steadily improving. What do you believe is the key to our boys reaching new heights with regards to S & C? The key to any department being successful is by having a healthy culture. A culture where an individual can learn and grow without being scared to fail. My motto has always been: "Never a failure, always a lesson". If you have established a healthy environment with culture as the focus point, then things and systems start to fall in place by itself. I think for our SCC boys to reach a new level of competitiveness, we need to keep on and sustain that mindset which has already been introduced. This change in mindset was introduced and pushed hard within our sport department and was a topic of discussion on numerous occasions. We are fortunate to have an incredibly diverse sport department with phenomenal leaders and specialists in their field, who lead from the front in driving this culture. One needs to understand that success does not happen overnight, you cannot expect to have one session and wake up the next day weighing 10Kg's heavier or feeling stronger, conditioning does not work that way. It takes months of dedicated hard work to reach goals. Preparing physically day in and day out, also aids your mental side of things. Taking that preparation and knowing you are well prepared for your match, makes a tremendous difference in one's performance come match day.

Therefore, SCC will continue to strive in our quest to keep pushing boundaries and reaching new heights as we become a formidable force within the country.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR Old Boys

What are some of the values and take-aways our Old Boys have carried with them since leaving School? Here are a few words from our class of 2008 and a special message from our 2020 War Cry Leader...

SENIOR SCHOOL Artwork of the WEEK

Our artwork of the week for this week's newsletter belongs to Grade 9 students Malachi Prigge and Pepijn Rennings.

For their exam pieces, they were given half a face and they had to complete the other half and make it look like one face.

Well done to Malachi and Pepijn on their excellent work!

REDUCE, REUSE, Recycle

During lockdown, one of our boys in Grade 0, Jordan Schoeman spent some time with his Gran learning all about reducing, reusing and recycling by working on fun projects to see what they could create and by making Eco Bricks. Well done Jordan – keep it up!
