

THE

Saints

Weekly

ROUND-UP

It has been confirmed that the gazette allowing inter-school sport has been delayed and will not be published this week as expected. The Premier has also cancelled all events this week out of respect for the passing of King Goodwill Zwelithini. This means that our inter-school fixtures will have to be postponed. Despite the disappointment, we hope that this communication will help in your planning for the weekend, and we all hope for a small dose of normality in the near future.

MATHS OLYMPIAD Round 1

The first round of the South African Mathematics Olympiad was written on 11 March 2021. Our Saints boys produced excellent results, with 49 out of the 53 Junior boys qualifying to write the second round.

Achieving Top in Grade 8 was Divaar Pillay, Chuhal Pillay and Slade Siebert with 100% each. Top in Grade 9 was Cameron Beesley and Chris Anderssen with 85% each. Top in Grade 12 was Jaimé Gous with 85%, Top in Grade 11 was Thomas Freese and Sebastian Ridge both with 75% and Top in Grade 10 was Pepijn Rennings with 60%.

We would like to congratulate these boys on their excellent achievement and want to wish them all the best for the second round which will be written on 18 May 2021.

– Mrs Charlotte Pillay
(Head of Mathematics)

Virtual MIDMAR MILE

This past weekend saw four of our Prep boys and one boy from our Senior School participate in the Virtual Midmar Mile.

We congratulate Cameron Barker (Grade 12), James Dickason (Grade 7), Jed Galliers, Michael Smit and Joel Cole-Edwardes (all in Grade 4) who completed the swim.

WORLD LEGENDS T20

SENIOR SCHOOL Artwork OF THE WEEK

This week's Artwork of the Week is an acrylic painting by Grade 11 AS student, Asanda Vengeni. He has been looking at a theme of portraits which are expressive and show some emotion rather than just a photographic image of the subjects. – Ms Mary-Ann Hartley

#MusicMonday ON THE SAINTS CAMPUS

Every Monday we've been sharing some music by our Saints boys on our social media pages.

Did you miss this week's #MusicMonday by our Grade 10 band laying 'Do I wanna Know' by the Artic Monkey's? Click on the image alongside to visit our Facebook page and watch the video.

SCRUMMIES ART EXHIBITION

Sneak Peek!

Our boys in Scrummies have been working hard over the last few weeks drawing, cutting, sticking, painting and creating beautiful pieces of art for their end of term Art Exhibition!

NEWSPAPER ARTICLES IN Grade 3

Our boys in Grade 3 were recently tasked with writing different types of articles that could appear in a newspaper...

Our Wildlife – Keegan saves Wildlife

Keegan Mann, age 9, travels around the world to rescue wildlife.

After landing in Australia, Keegan soon discovered turtles chewing on plastic straws. He cleaned up the beaches to save the turtles. Keegan darted lions in Africa to move them to safer territories.

I admire this boy for his bravery and passion for animals. We need more boys like Keegan.

Sport News – Youngest footballer shines

The world's youngest footballer is in an interview with the best player in the world, Maradona. Tredyn decided he will sign a contract for two years to play for Pep Guardiola. Finally, Derby Day is here.

Man United vs. Man City. The game is at Old Trafford, everybody is warming up.

The whistle blows to kick off. Tredyn chases the ball, he gets it and runs. He passes to one of his teammates, he shoots, he scores. Now they defend, minute after minute they defend. Finally, the referee blows the whistle. They have won!

PREP SCHOOL TENNIS AND SQUASH

With the assistance of Mrs Barichievy in Squash and Ms Hockey in Tennis, we have been able to offer these two non-contact sports throughout the term. The number of boys attending has been very pleasing and as an incentive, have started a ladder for each Grade. This has motivated the boys to practice hard, keep improving and hopefully challenge their friends to move up the ladder. – Mr Gregg Cole-Edwardes (Head of Prep Sport)
