BOK FRIDAY

ON THE SAINT'S CAMPUS

The excitement has been growing on campus and in South Africa as the Series decider between the Springboks and the British and Irish Lions takes place tomorrow. In what is billed as the biggest Test Match since the Boks played in the 2019 World Cup Final, our boys showed their Green & Gold support along with the College Rugby Specialist, Mr Petrus du Plessis. The kick-off will take place behind closed doors at the Cape Town Stadium but millions around the world will be watching... LET'S GO BOKKE!

NATIONAL Cricket

After a comprehensive trials process, we congratulate Panashe Taruvinga on his selection for the Zimbabwe U19 cricket squad! This is a fantastic achievement from an incredibly focused and self-disciplined young man. The squad was due to tour South Africa during August, but games were postponed due to Covid-19.

There is an U19 World Cup next year to be hosted in the West Indies and we wish Panashe all the best as he prepares for further selections.
– Mr Rowan Irons
(Director of Sport)

Congratulations to Saints Old Boy, Erich Ortman, for his Sharks Academy U20 call up!

FRENCH TEXTBOOKS ARRIVE AT SCC

The pedagogical material was donated to us by Ambassade de France in collaboration with Alliance Française, Institut Français, and French School and university departments in Southern Africa. The project aims to strengthen and promote the profession of teaching French as a foreign language.

We are exceptionally grateful for this generous donation as it will certainly provide much-needed classroom and examination resources at every ability level. – Mrs Carrissa Ortmann

Outdoor Learning IN THE SENIOR SCHOOL

Earlier this week we spotted some of our boys in the Senior School enjoying some time in the winter sun while getting their work done.

ARTWORK OF THE WEEK...

This week's featured artwork belongs to Grade 12 AS Student, Sean Bowden. The above linoprint is part of his coursework portfolio. – Ms Mary-Ann Hartley

JUNIOR PRIMARY SPORTS ASSEMBLY

With the Senior School sporting environment hovering mere years away from the JP boys, they will begin to get an understanding of the demands and pressures that come with producing individual success both on and off the sports field. This is why we decided to focus on the theme of 'Our Saints Family', to help unite as a collective to protect the individuals from the pressures that will surely come.

Everyone agrees that the JP Sports Environment should be child-centered, inclusive and that children should be taught not only sports but life lessons.

So today we invited one of our Grade 7s, Thandanani Zuma, to chat to the boys and we handed over the definition of 'Our Saints Family' to our Grade 1, 2 and 3 during assembly. While this definition will still be refined and finalised by our boys over the coming weeks one massive point that was mentioned by our young boys in the discussion was, TOGETHERNESS. Through victories, through defeats, through the highs and through the lows we will always have our Saints brothers to lean on. Our young Saints boys will always have family amongst their brothers and a home on our campus. – Mr Joel Barron (Junior Primary Sport)

Mini Olympics IN SCRUMMIES

After last week's Olympic excitement on the Saints campus, our boys, and their teachers in Scrummies, hosted a Mini Olympics. They had so much fun creating their teams, competing in races, and cheering on their friends!
