Saints CRICKET

The 1st XI opened their new season with a special capping ceremony in the changerooms on Thursday. Capping ceremonies are a rite of passage and a privilege to be a part of, for both players and coaches alike. The amount of time we spend together on the field entails that we form a strong brotherhood where the team always come first. The start of this bond began on Thursday, with some special moments to savor.

Each 1st team player was presented with a kit bag, backpack, playing shirt, warm up shirt and jersey. In addition, Hayden Raw, our 1st XI captain, hung up the captain's blazer and read out the citation of wearing this blazer every time he leads his team out for battle. Cricket shirts of past players who have played at a representative level were hung up in the exact spots that they occupied when they were in the 1st team. Finally, two 1st XI caps were awarded to Gordon Hill and Jens Lütge, and we look forward to seeing them produce more outstanding performances in their final year as a Saints 1st XI player. The team now look forward to Michaelmas Week where we will be up against the best teams in South Africa; namely Jeppe, Grey College and Pretoria Boys.

It is our privilege now to continue the legacy that has been laid before us. Our cricket heritage demands it.
– Mr Murray Cole-Edwardes (1st Team Cricket Coach)

limited access this weekend only

14:24

Dear Parents, we will be adjusting Zone One for this weekend to permit parents access to a limited number of venues on the campus. This decision is made with the understanding that we have the capacity to apply all safety measures given the small number of fixtures that are taking place this weekend. Please note that we will not have the capacity, without formal adjustment of the regulations, to repeat this next weekend and we appreciate your patience and support as we try to say yes in very challenging circumstances. Yours faithfully, AVB, Principal.

RUGBY Academy

Good luck to Jakob Sisia who will be representing the Sharks U18 Academy team this Sunday at 11h15 against the Griffons at Johnson Kings Park. – Mr Petrus Du Plessis (Rugby Specialist)

PREP INTER HOUSE GALA

After the excitement of watching the Olympics, and sport reopening, our boys in the Prep School were ready to start competing against each other once again.

Arriving at school in their house colours, everyone was very excited to take part in the Inter House gala, and the swimming did not disappoint. Cheered on by their friends and encouraged by their teachers, everyone had lots of fun. Congratulations to Delalle for being the Swimming Champions of 2021.

– Mr Gregg Cole-Edwardes (Head of Prep Sport)

HARWIN ROAD Productions

Let the Show begin (well nearly) – Less than 30 days to go until the Official Harwin Road Series launches. Follow the HARWIN ROAD PRODUCTION Facebook page for all the updates and world class entertainment.

During the holidays, a few of the boys involved in Harwin Road were spotted working on some recording for the series.

Trulife PRODUCTION

On Wednesday, 29 September, the non-profit organization Trulife spent the day on campus with our Grade 7s, 8s and 9s. Trulife travels the country using creative means to challenge youth on many issues found in society.

Their dramatized themes included the topic of identity for the Grade 7s and the risks of drinking and drugs for the Grade 8s and 9s. There was much fun, participation and thoughtfulness put into the productions and their relevant topics; and they were well received by the boys. – Mr Ross Ducasse (Chaplain)

OUR GRADE 7s ARE Going on Tour

While we were not able to embark on our Cape expedition this year, our Grade 7 Class of 2021 received their hoodies, backpacks and caps, ahead of our planned outward bound trip to Tala Game Reserve.

The personalised embroidered kit may not only be useful when visiting Tala but will be a lasting memento of our young men's final year of Prep School. – Mr Brett Sliedrecht (Head of Senior Primary)

MUSIC MONDAY ON THE SAINTS Campus

This week's Music Monday from the Saints Campus featured a performance of "Autumn" by Joshua de Wet (Grade 10) and his sister. This piece was recorded as part of Joshua's IGCSE practical submission.

ARBOR WEEK

South Africa celebrates Arbor Week in September. Our boys in the Prep School have enjoyed learning about the importance of trees in our lives and that we need to plant them and take good care of them. – Mrs Brenda Franklin

BOOK DONATIONS FROM THE Junior Primary

Every year, on the 8th of September, International Literacy Day is observed to raise awareness and concern about literacy issues that exist both locally and globally. Its aim is to highlight the importance of literacy to individuals, communities and societies.

With this in mind, our Junior Primary boys learnt about the importance of literacy in everyday life and celebrated the theme by generously bringing books to donate to Never Never Land School in Emandleni, Cedara.
